Annual Report published

23 August 2005

The 2004/5 Annual Report and Accounts from the Met Office was officially published yesterday. The Annual Report looks back on the work of the Met Office over the past 12 months - which included issuing more than 140 warnings of severe weather during the exceptionally wet Summer of 2004.

The report also looks forward to 2005/6, during which we aim to deliver even greater value for money and advance our world-class performance as a meteorological agency.

The Annual Report and Account 2004/5 can be downloaded here, or hard copies can be obtained from Customer Centre or The Stationery Office, Tel: 0870 800 5522.
